

Le Bois des Coua2sous

It is a standalone.

The rules of Coua2sous are the same than Couadsous.

The news rules are when you mix the both games together.

At this time, you could play from 2 to 8 players.

They are 4 variations of rules.

The neighbour party: 5 to 8 players

Goal: to be the first to find 5 nuts and/or acorn.

Installation:

Install 9 forest cards in the centre of the table to do a square 3*3 cards and around the square, 12 cards with 2 nuts or acorn drawn on.

Then, put the 12 cards with one nut / acorn on the double nuts cards.

How to play:

Each player chooses a squirrel or a wild boar and play with the same rules than the original game.

Couadsous rules:

(mettre les règles de couadsous en anglais)

Except:

- Now, you can move only on the left side
- When a player won, she/he takes the card on the top of the card stack.

Expert method: 2 to 4 players

Goal: to be the first to find 5 nuts and/or acorn.

Installation:

Install 9 forest cards in the centre of the table to do a square 3*3 cards and then put on these 9 cards 9 others forest cards.

Around the square, install 12 cards with 1 and 2 nuts / acorn drawn on.

How to play:

Each player chooses a squirrel or a wild boar and play with the same rules than the original game (cf rules above).

Except:

- You can move only on the left side
- If you trying to win one nuts/acorn you have to turn over just one forest card.
- If you trying to win 2 nuts/acorn you have to turn over all the forest cards.

The big table: 2 to 6 players

Goal: to be the first to find 5 nuts and/or acorn.

Installation:

Install 16 forest cards in the centre of the table to do a square 4*4 cards.
Around the square, install 8 nuts cards and 8 acorn cards.

How to play:

Each player chooses a squirrel or a wild boar and play with the same rules than the original game (cf rules above).
